

Information for leaseholders and shared owners

6: Insurance

Under the terms of your lease it usually falls within Thirteen's responsibility to make sure the property has adequate building insurance in place. .

This covers your property against structural damage. A copy of the summary of cover which provide details of the insured perils can be accessed from your Leasehold Co-ordinator.

We do not insure the contents of your property therefore we recommend that you insure your furniture, decorations and belongings through a suitable home contents insurance policy.

Thirteen makes it easy for you to insure your belongings by working with two different insurance providers to offer you policies only available to Thirteen Group customers.
